

PROTOCOL

Today, 07.09.2008, in Plovdiv, according the Statute of the Festival, Part – AWARS, the Jury of the festival of the Seventeenth International Puppet-theatre Festival

“THREE ARE TOO MANY – TWO – NOT ENOUGH”

With the following members:

Chairman: Hristina Arsenova - director

Bogdana Kosturkova – theatrical critic

Dimitar Vodenicharov – stage designer

Discussed the performances that where in the competitive program and unanimously

DECIDED :

- The award for best chamer-art puppet performance, statue from the sculptor Vassil Margaritov and 1000 levas, goes to “Pro Rodopi” Art Center for the performance “I, Thy Soul”.
- The award for best performance, statue from the sculptor Vassil Margaritov and 1000 levas, goes to Bolshoy Teatr Kukol – Saint Petersburg, Russia for th perfoamcne “Holstomer”.

Additional awards

- Prasied by the Foundation “EastEuropean projects”, given only to theatres from Bulgaria:
 - Third place – State puppet theate Stara Zagora frot eh performance “The Frog King”
 - Second place – theatre “NIKOI” for the performance “COLD”.
 - First place – special transitional award of the Dutch sculptor Jan Van Dajk and cash award, goes to “Pro Rodopi” Art Center for the performance “I, Thy Soul”.
- Award of the Children’s jury from Foundation “The Little Big Stars” – Plvdoiv - for the perforamcne “Stories With Shoes” – group of Fernan Cardama, Spain